

Local Truck Driver

Myerstown, PA

Would you like to drive for a company that can offer these perks?

Local daily routes with an occasional overnight stay

CDL Class-A Encouraged but not required

$16- 20 per hour starting wage AND full benefits - including Health, Holiday, PTO

Updated, well maintained fleet that is designed for driver comfort and safety

An employer that values faith and understands the importance of family

Owners and Managers with CDL experience who understand and care about their drivers

Keystone Transport Services, LLC, a family owned, furniture logistics company with headquarters in Myerstown, PA is quickly becoming the fine furniture industry's choice for professional furniture delivery. Our clients value the extra steps we take to protect their furniture from damage, our dependable delivery schedule, state-of-the-art delivery notification and tracking, and customer-oriented drivers. To meet the rapidly increasing demand for our services, we are looking for skilled, responsible, & friendly drivers to join our team & work on an established local route. Keystone Transport drivers enjoy generous benefits, a set schedule, and genuinely look forward to coming to work.

Our Local Drivers...

Load and deliver blanket wrapped, premium furniture to stores safely and on time.

Will assist with warehouse work to ensure a timely loading & unloading process

Serve as the face of Keystone Transport to customers

Build relationships with our regular customers and go the extra mile to make our customers happy.

Will work consistently with local routes

Our Ideal Local Driver...

Cares about our customers

Understands the importance of handling each piece of furniture with care to ensure happy customers

Wants to work for an employer who values faith and family

Has a clean driving record

Is willing to earn their CDL A at a later date

Cares about safety

If you are friendly, self - motivated and are looking for a position with a growing, team - oriented company with career opportunities, a wholesome environment, and being home weekends, Keystone Transport Services, LLC could be the place for you!